Day 1-2-3-4 – MADRID (30th, 1st, 2nd and 3rd July)

The capital of Spanish language, Madrid is short of nothing; whether you're a sun seeker, a culture & foodie lover or both. What Madrid lacks in beaches and coasts it makes up for in art galleries, streets lined with Spain's best tapas bars, large open verdant gardens and a city atmosphere that never decreases no matter the time of day, week or month! We will eat tapas, listen flamenco, check the old town and one of the biggest gay neighborhoods, Chueca and we will party at the World Pride and the best guy clubs. Get ready!!

Days 4-5-6 and 7 – SEVILLE/RONDA

After Madrid World Pride we will need a bit of a rest in Seville (or "Sevilla" as the locals call it) is incredibly rich in history and is the home to many things that scream "SPAIN!" including bull-riding, flamenco, and paella. It's also known as being one of the most romantic cities in Spain with romance in the air at every turn. Of course there's also a very lively gay community here too if you're looking to meet some locals! All of this makes Seville a perfectly well-rounded city with beauty, history, and culture galore. We will do a one day trip to Ronda, one of the most beautiful and magic places in Spain.

Days 7-8-9 – BARCELONA (6th, 7th and 8th July)

It's time to enjoy again another Pride in Spain. Now we will travel to Barcelona which is jam-packed full of unique things to see and do which is why it's such a loved place by its visitors!. We'll check out some famous spots together such as the Sagrada Familia, and Las Ramblas, we will do shopping in one of the biggest malls in Europe. We will enjoy with Gaudí's arquitectura and we will party, a lot!! Best gay clubs in Spain and the Barcelona Gay Parade.

Day 10 BARCELONA – HOME (9th July)

After the check out, we will go to the airport to take the flight home.

CITIES

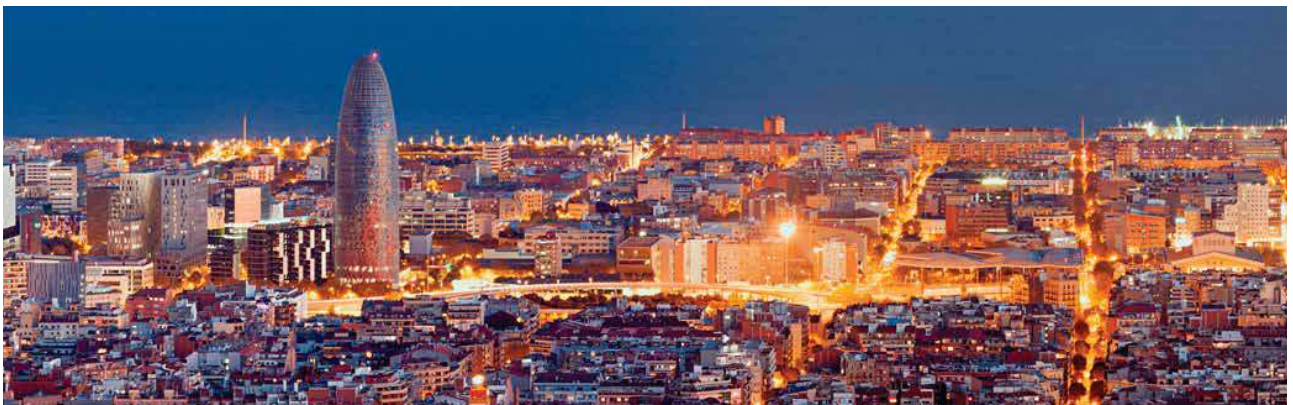

BARCELONA

Thanks to its location between the sea and the mountains, Barcelona has found a perfect balance: a foot in the traditional things and the other in the postmodern. Barcelona has the reputation of being the most cosmopolitan & trendy city in Spain, and probably in Europe! Since it was completely renewed for the 1992 Olympic Games, the city has become a must for all around the world travelers!

But Barcelona is much more than Gaudi's universally celebrated architecture, more than a sophisticated, massively multicultural city, more even than one of the world's iconic cities. It's easy to get wrapped up into the Spanish way of life in this city and that's why we start and end our Spain trips here! Besides being a famously gay "must see" city with countless nightlife options, Barcelona also has that "beach city" feel and a "siestas and fiestas" attitude. Whether you've come to immerse yourself in the culture that surrounds each city block, mark your spot on the stunning gay beach, dive into the endless gastronomy scene, or get to know the locals, Barcelona is ready for you.

It is even more than a city with a perfect combination of a warm Mediterranean climate, beaches within and close to the city, mountains in the hinterland and the culture, nightlife, sights and infrastructure of a European metropolis!

For gay friendly and gay travellers Barcelona has been one of the favourite destinations in Europe for the last twenty years. The city has this The center of Barcelona's gay scene is in the Eixample district (sometimes called the Gayxample neighborhood, or "Gaixample" in Catalan) with most of the gay bars, hotels, restaurants and shops in Barcelona.

MADRID

The capital of Spanish language, Madrid is short of nothing; whether you're a sun seeker, a culture & foodie lover or both. What Madrid lacks in beaches and coasts it makes up for in art galleries, streets lined with Spain's best tapas bars, large open verdant gardens and a city atmosphere that never decreases no matter the time of day, week or month!

Through its never ending labyrinth of streets, crossroads and endless laneways, Madrid is the perfect city to find the most intimate settings. Discover a city rich in centuries of history. Madrid is happy, open, multicultural and vibrant during the day, enchanted by night.

This city is one of the new hot gay destinations in Europe. The bars and clubs are all located close to each other in Chueca, a suburb located in the old quarter at the center of Madrid. It's a tightly compact area, actually two areas a short distance apart. "Madrileños" like all Spaniards tend to party late, going out to eat at 10pm, hitting the bars at 1am. and on to the discos about 4am.

The Gay Pride Madrid is one of the biggest and most popular gay events in Europe. The parade in the very center of Madrid – with more than 3 million participants and visitors – became the hottest and most colourful gay pride parade Europe had ever seen. Madrid will host World Pride 2017!

SEVILLE

We have a well-known saying in Spain: Seville has a special colour! The sheer joy of its people, its international reputation as the cradle of traditional tapas, its flamenco soul and year-round sunny days make Seville a welcoming, vibrant and beautiful city!

We can guarantee that Seville is one of the most beautiful cities you've ever seen! There's a reason visitors fall in love with this Andalusian city that's full of life and a contrast of old and new. It's a city of football, history, romance, tapas, sangria, dancing, and culture. Hit the streets to soak in the atmosphere at the Plaza de España, head inside to the Alcazar or the famously grand Cathedral, get cultural with live local theatre and dancing, or take a day trip to the vineyards or a nature tour. We're here for 3 nights of everything Andalusian so whether you're a "do as much as you can" traveler or more of the laid back and "take it all in" type, Seville won't limit you.

Our daytimes will generally be spent exploring and adventuring while our evenings are the time for taking in the memorable culinary scene and social life. The majority of the gay scene here in Seville is outdoor and flows from one establishment to the next, making for a fun social mood and a great place to meet the locals.

RONDA

Ronda is located in the Málaga region sits on either side of the Tajo del Ronda, a narrow gorge more than 150 meters deep. Celts, Phoenicians, Romans and Arabs all inhabited these lands, which were eventually reconquered by the Catholic Monarchs. Ronda still preserves its walls and the most important gates which gave access to the city. It is famous worldwide for its dramatic escarpments and views, and for the deep El Tajo gorge that carries the rio Guadalevín through its centre. Visitors make a beeline for the 18th century Puente Nuevo 'new' bridge, which straddles the 100m chasm below, for its unparalleled views out over the Serranía de Ronda Mountains. There is no gay scene in Ronda but it is worth it to visit.

TRAVEL INSURANCE

The Client MUST take out suitable travel insurance in order to take part in a tour organised by the Spain Seven Degrees. Clients are wholly responsible for arranging their own insurance. A suitable insurance policy should provide adequate cover for medical expenses arising through illness or accident prior to or during the holiday and loss of holiday monies through cancellation and curtailment of the holiday for insurable reasons. Spain Seven Degrees is able to assist the Client in obtaining a suitable insurance policy. Clients making their own arrangements should ensure that there are no exclusion clauses limiting protection for the type of activities in their tour. Clients should satisfy themselves that any travel insurance arranged through the Company is what they require and should arrange supplementary insurance if need be.

CANCELLATIONS

With only 6 fully-paid travelers required to guarantee a trip departure, it's very rare that we cancel a trip. That said, if we must cancel a trip, we will always notify our travelers of trip cancellation at least 60 days prior to trip departure date with the option of a full refund of amount paid, or a transfer of payments onto an alternate trip. Spain Seven Degrees also reserves the right to cancel a trip based on situations out of our control which can include political instability, terrorism, natural disasters, etc. We will always give our travelers as much notice as possible if any situation arises that forces a trip cancellation.

CANCELLATION POLICY

- Any cancellations by February 28th will receive a refund minus 50% of the deposit amount (350€)
- Any cancellations from March 1 to April 26th will receive a refund minus the total deposit amount (700€)

ROOMING

All published prices are based on twin-share (2 travelers per room).

Solo traveler? No problem! We offer two options for our solo travelers:

ROOMMATE MATCHING

We will match you up with a person of the same gender to share a room (two separate beds) at no additional cost.

PRIVATE ROOM

We charge a very reasonable private room fee to give you your own room for the duration of the trip. This fee is different for each trip; please see the dates and prices page for specific fee information for your trip.

PASSPORTS AND VISAS

We are here to help with any information you require regarding passport and visa requirements in each of the countries we operate in. The responsibility, however, relies on the traveler to ensure the passport is valid for 6 months beyond the trip end date, as well as visas are obtained and valid. We cannot be held responsible for individual passport or visa problems that may arise.

FLIGHTS

International flights to the destination country are not included in the trip cost.

GROUP SIZES

We definitely aren't the "big 50-person tour bus" kind of company. We believe the best way to experience a new place is with a more intimate group rather than a parade of people. That's why our groups range in size from 4 to 14 members plus 2 trip leaders. This gives everyone lots of opportunity to meet new people and make some new BFF's while not overwhelming our destinations. Wondering how many people are booked on your upcoming trip? Just ask!

ITINERARY CHANGES

Occasionally, situations arise that require a change of accommodation, itinerary, mode of transport, schedule, etc. Spain Seven Degrees will always inform our travelers of these changes as soon as possible as they arise. We cannot be held responsible for major changes forced by circumstances beyond our control (natural disaster, political instability, terrorism, etc.).

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

You are aware that, during the trip in which you are choosing to participate, you are subjecting yourself to certain risks including, but not limited to: forces of nature, travel in remote areas and wilderness terrain, and transportation by air, train, automobile or other conveyance. You are aware that medical services and facilities may not be readily available throughout the duration of the trip. You recognize that such risks may be present at any time during the trip. You are further aware that we act only as agent for the owners, contractors and suppliers providing means of transportation and/or all other related travel services and assume no responsibility howsoever caused for injury, loss, damage or death to person or property in connection with any service resulting directly or indirectly from: natural acts, detention, annoyance, delays and expenses arising from quarantine, strike, theft, failure of any means of conveyance to arrive or depart as scheduled, civil disturbance, government restriction or regulation, discrepancies of change of transit or hotel services, over which we have no control. You understand that if any trip has to be delayed because of weather, road conditions, flight delays, cancellation of common carriers, sickness or other contingencies for which we cannot reasonably make provision, the cost of your delay and/or replacement is not included in the trip fees. All payments must be paid locally. In consideration of, and in part payment of, the right to participate in the trip, you will fully assume all risk of the above hazards and hereby release and discharge us and our agents from all actions, claims or demands resulting from your willing participation in the trip. You are aware that this is a release of liability and a contract between you and us and that you sign it of your own free will.

This agreement shall serve as a release for you, your heirs, administrators, executors and for all members of your family including any minors accompanying you. Trip members grant Spain Seven Degrees express permission to take a photographic record of its trips for promotional and commercial use.

FAQ

What if I'm travelling alone?

Most of our clients of past trips draw more single travelers than couples. When couples do join us, it's usually because they're looking forward to interacting with a gay group; if they wanted a holiday by themselves, they wouldn't have signed up to travel with us. Furthermore, the activities included with our trips serve as natural ice-breakers. Within a day, you'll be traveling with friends. You don't need to pay the single supplement if you're traveling alone. We'll be happy to match you with a roommate. Pay the single supplement only if you want a bedroom to yourself.

I'm a female, can I come?

By all means! Although the vast majority of our groups are made up of men, we don't discriminate between genders. Just make sure you're prepared for a fun-loving bunch of gay guys as trip mates.

Generally, how large are the groups?

Group sizes generally range from (including trip leaders) 8-15 people. This gives everyone plenty of opportunity to meet other guys on the trip and have a good number of BFF's by the end of it. Every trip is different and regardless of the size of the group, you're assured an awesome adventure. Our minimum group size is 6 and our maximum is 14.

Do I need a passport?

Everyone who travels with us will need a passport. Wait times vary for passport approval so if you haven't got a passport then it is best to begin working on obtaining yours shortly after making your initial trip deposit. This is the most important document you need to enable you to travel, so we suggest ensuring you have one and that it has at least 6 months validity left on it from the date of your departure.

Do I need a travel visa?

Depends on the country you come from. Check link:
<http://www.exteriores.gob.es/Consulados/LONDRES/en/Consulado/Pages/CheckPassport.aspx>

Do I need travel insurance?

Everyone traveling on a Spain Seven Degrees trip absolutely MUST have a medical travel insurance. Please arrange your own medical and travel insurance or in some cases you will be covered through a credit card, employer, work or school. Whatever the case is, you will need to provide proof that you have medical coverage before you are allowed to join your trip.

What is the age of the majority of travelers in my group?

Our unstructured style of trip seems to appeal to travelers from all ages! We find that the around 90% of our travelers are in their 20's and 30's, although travelers of all ages are warmly welcomed. No matter what the difference in age is everyone joining us will have lots of things in common and be looking forward to having the most amazing experience of their life.

TRIP NOTES

The Climate

Don't worry about getting chilly, our trip is scheduled in the warm months ensuring maximum warmth and sunshine! Temperatures will vary from warm to hot. In Barcelona and Sitges we can expect temperatures in the high 70's and 80's Fahrenheit (high 20's Celsius) and Madrid a bit warmer.

The People

You may notice a difference between the Catalan people of Barcelona and Sitges, and the Madrileños people of Madrid. Both areas are proud of their unique heritage which is evident in the people you'll meet. Although Spain is known as a Catholic country, it is also an incredibly LGBT-friendly country too, being one of the first countries in the world to legalize same sex marriage nationally. The gay community in Spain ranges from the beach and party-loving and cool crowd in Barcelona, to the more cultural, social and friendly communities in Madrid. Although English is very widely spoken, consider learning a few words of the Spanish language while you're here, we recommend starting off with "Hola" (hello), "Gracias" (thank you), and of course "Donde esta la playa?" (where's the beach?)

Meals

Who doesn't like Spanish food?! Think Mediterranean favorites such as paella, and unique tapas served on perfect people-watching patios. Spanish people love taking long breaks ("siesta hours") in the afternoon when they'll close up shops for a couple hours to grab a bite with friends. This is a perfect time to indulge in some afternoon tapas and a glass of sangria. Detours doesn't believe in limiting your choices by including all of your meals at pre-decided restaurants as part of the trip package. Instead, we include all of your breakfasts to start your day off, then we explore all of the different restaurant options available for lunch and dinner. This way we can eat when we want, where we want, and spend what we want! Your trip leader definitely has their favorite spots so if you'd like some advice on the best in each location, just check with them.

What to bring?

Our advice is simple. Pack your bag, then take half of those things out and leave them back home. It's common to hear people wishing they'd packed less stuff, but we've never heard anyone complain that they didn't bring enough. Even if you realize you forget to pack some crucial item you can always pick up a replacement once you arrive in Spain.

Money

We REALLY suggest just bringing your regular bank card from home and using the ATMs in Spain to get cash; in our experience it's cheaper than any currency exchange service in Spain or even at home. Spain uses the Euro as their local currency and shops/restaurants do not accept other currency so once you arrive into Madrid airport you should stock up on some Euro cash. Credit cards are widely accepted in Spain so it's good to bring one on your trip too. Travelers checks are a thing of the past so we don't recommend them any more.

Tipping

Tipping isn't a native Spanish custom, however, it is always appreciated by local service staff. We suggest tipping for any services that go above and beyond expectations. That extra Euro or two on a dinner bill is very appreciated by the service staff.

Accommodation

We have pretty high standards when it comes to choosing our accommodations to be approved as a Spain Seven Degrees accommodations provider, a hotel/guesthouse must: be locally owned (to support the local community), be in an amazing location (close to the beach or other hot spots), AND be gay-owned or gay-friendly. We won't be staying in 5-star Ritz-Carltons but we also won't subject you to anything we wouldn't want to stay in ourselves. Clean, comfortable, well-located spots that'll put a smile on your face, you can count on that!

Trip Leaders

All of our trip leaders are gay, and all certified leaders must undergo a rigorous training routine that includes deep-fried cricket eating, and impromptu dancing tests. Apart from these vital skills, we require our leaders to know their stuff really, really well. Underneath their fun and quirky facades, our guides are experts and passionate about what they do. Don't hesitate to ask them to teach you some Spanish or question them about a random statue you might see along the way. Their job is to help ensure that this is your trip of a lifetime by taking the hassle out of your trip and enabling you to experience everything you came to Spain for.

Alarm Clocks

We do absolutely everything possible to avoid needing such a mundane awakening. A world without alarm clocks is one we want to be part of, and your "rise and shine" while in Spain should come from the sound of crashing waves or church bells in the distance. However, sometimes due to current train or flight schedules we are required to make early departures, but we do everything we can to minimize this.

Extending Your Trip

For many people, 9 days in Spain just isn't enough time. If you're lucky enough to be able to stay longer, or if you decide to quit your job and become a beach bum in the Mediterranean for the rest of your life, we'd be happy to help you extend (or cancel!) your return flight. We've been all over the area, so don't think twice about asking where to go or what to do after your Spain Seven Degrees trip is complete. Vasc Country and, the Balearic Islands... many interesting destinations are close-by.

Your Group

Our Spain Seven Degrees groups are run with a minimum of 4 travelers and up to a maximum of 15 travelers. Ages of group members vary but around 80% of our travelers are in their 20's, 30's and 40's. Whatever the age of the guys on our trips everyone's already got something in common, an exciting new experience in a new country! Each group is led by a Spain Seven Degrees trip leader who is there to ensure everything goes off without a hitch, allowing you to focus on having the time of your life! We welcome both men and women onto our trips although it's important to know that most groups are 100% gay men.

A Little Bit About Modesty

The areas of Spain that we'll be visiting are very open-minded and most people will be welcoming of homosexuality. As one of the first countries in the world to legalize gay marriage nationally, gays are widely accepted and although you may not see same-sex couples showing their love in the streets, it is not a place where it is dangerous to be ourselves.

Solo Travelers

No problem! Don't worry, lots of our travelers come solo and our trip will provide plenty of chances to meet great people both inside and outside of our group, including other solo travelers. As far as your accommodations go, you've got two choices. We can either pair you up with another solo group member in a two-bed room for no extra charge, or you can have your own room for a reasonable surcharge.

Communicating with Home

Relax – we won't keep you from updating your Facebook status the whole trip. There is WiFi all over the place and available at every hotel we stay at. If you're more the "E.T." type and would just rather call home, feel free to pick up a calling card at a corner store and make use of the many local payphones. Alternatively, if your mobile phone is "unlocked" you can pick up a local European SIM card which is quite affordable.

Electrical Outlets

Spain uses a "type C" and "type F" plug, the same as most European countries and several other places in the world. The voltage is 230V with 50 Hz frequency. These days, the majority of items that are plugged into an outlet are built to handle varying voltage and frequency levels, but just to be sure, we suggest checking your item for its acceptable range.

SPAIN IS WAITING FOR YOU!
