For further and more detailed information scroll down to page 3.

Days 1 to 4 – MADRID (30th, 1st, 2nd and 3rd July)

The capital of Spanish language, Madrid is short of nothing; whether you're a sun seeker, a culture & foodie lover or both. What Madrid lacks in beaches and coasts it makes up for in art galleries, streets lined with Spain's best tapas bars, large open verdant gardens and a city atmosphere that never decreases no matter the time of day, week or month! We will eat tapas, listen flamenco, check the old town and one of the biggest gay neighborhoods, Chueca and we will party at the World Pride and the best gay clubs. Get ready!!

Days 4 to 7 – SEVILLE/RONDA (4th, 5th, 6th and 7th July)

It's time for a bit of a change after our euphoric days in Madrid. It's the turn of Seville, one of Spain's more representative cities. A city with over 3000 years of history, distinctive personality and home to our most well-known authentic Spanish culture, such as flamenco dancing, bull fighting and tapas bars. The Sevillanos, people from Sevilla, are known for being very lively, funny and charismatic. Sevilla's mainly historic cover defined by Moorish culture, Roman ruins and Gothic architecture has also the ability to adapt into a modern city with a vibrant atmosphere and a bubbly gay community. We will travel to Ronda for a one day excursion and we will discover this stunning beautiful city, known as well for being one of Spain's magical places.

Days 7 to 9 – BARCELONA (7th, 8th and 9th July)

It's time to enjoy the big city life again, it's the turn of dazzling Barcelona. We won't miss out on its most remarkable places to see such as the Sagrada Família, Parque Güell or Las Ramblas, but we will take you also to our favourite off the beaten track spots where you will enjoy the culture and the city vibes in a more intimate way. We will join the buzzy nightlife atmosphere in the best bars, gay clubs and of course the Barcelona Gay Parade.

Day 10 BARCELONA – HOME (9th July)

After the check out, we will go to the airport to take the flight home.

CITIES

BARCELONA

Thanks to its location between the sea and the mountains, Barcelona has found a perfect balance: a foot in the traditional things and the other in the postmodern. Barcelona has the reputation of being the most cosmopolitan & trendy city in Spain, and probably in Europe! Since it was completely renewed for the 1992 Olympic Games, the city has become a must for all around the world travelers!

But Barcelona is much more than Gaudi's universally celebrated architecture, more than a sophisticated, massively multicultural city, more even than one of the world's iconic cities. It's easy to get wrapped up into the Spanish way of life in this city and that's why we start and end our Spain trips here! Besides being a famously gay "must see" city with countless nightlife options, Barcelona also has that "beach city" feel and a "siestas and fiestas" attitude. Whether you've come to immerse yourself in the culture that surrounds each city block, mark your spot on the stunning gay beach, dive into the endless gastronomy scene, or get to know the locals, Barcelona is ready for you.

It is even more than a city with a perfect combination of a warm Mediterranean climate, beaches within and close to the city, mountains in the hinterland and the culture, nightlife, sights and infrastructure of a European metropolis!

For gay friendly and gay travellers Barcelona has been one of the favourite destinations in Europe for the last twenty years. The center of Barcelona's gay scene is in the Eixample district (sometimes called the Gayxample neighborhood, or "Gaixample" in Catalan) with most of the gay bars, hotels, restaurants and shops in Barcelona.

MADRID

The capital of Spanish language, Madrid is short of nothing; whether you're a sun seeker, a culture & foodie lover or both. What Madrid lacks in beaches and coasts it makes up for in art galleries, streets lined with Spain's best tapas bars, large open verdant gardens and a city atmosphere that never decreases no matter the time of day, week or month!

Through its never ending labyrinth of streets, crossroads and endless laneways, Madrid is the perfect city to find the most intimate settings. Discover a city rich in centuries of history. Madrid is happy, open, multicultural and vibrant during the day, enchanted by night.

This city is one of the new hot gay destinations in Europe. The bars and clubs are all located close to each other in Chueca, a suburb located in the old quarter at the center of Madrid. It's a tightly compact area, actually two areas a short distance apart. "Madrileños" like all Spaniards tend to party late, going out to eat at 10pm, hitting the bars at 1am. and on to the discos about 4am.

The Gay Pride Madrid is one of the biggest and most popular gay events in Europe. The parade in the very center of Madrid – with more than 3 million participants and visitors – became the hottest and most colourful gay pride parade Europe had ever seen. Madrid will host World Pride 2017!

SEVILLE

We have a well-known saying in Spain: Seville has a special colour! The sheer joy of its people, its international reputation as the cradle of traditional tapas, its flamenco soul and year-round sunny days make Seville a welcoming, vibrant and beautiful city!

We can guarantee that Seville is one of the most beautiful cities you've ever seen! There's a reason visitors fall in love with this Andalusian city that's full of life and a contrast of old and new. It's a city of football, history, romance, tapas, sangria, dancing, and culture. Hit the streets to soak in the atmosphere at the Plaza de España, head inside to the Alcazar or the famously grand Cathedral, get cultural with live local theatre and dancing, or take a day trip to the vineyards or a nature tour. We're here for 3 nights of everything Andalusian so whether you're a "do as much as you can" traveler or more of the laid back and "take it all in" type, Seville won't limit you.

Our daytimes will generally be spent exploring and adventuring while our evenings are the time for taking in the memorable culinary scene and social life. The majority of the gay scene here in Seville is outdoor and flows from one establishment to the next, making for a fun social mood and a great place to meet the locals.

RONDA

Ronda is located in the Málaga region sits on either side of the Tajo del Ronda, a narrow gorge more than 150 meters deep. Celts, Phoenicians, Romans and Arabs all inhabited these lands, which were eventually reconquered by the Catholic Monarchs. Ronda still preserves its walls and the most important gates which gave access to the city. It is famous worldwide for its dramatic escarpments and views, and for the deep El Tajo gorge that carries the rio Guadalevín through its centre. Visitors make a beeline for the 18th century Puente Nuevo 'new' bridge, which straddles the 100m chasm below, for its unparalleled views out over the Serranía de Ronda Mountains. There is no gay scene in Ronda but is worth it to visit.

ACTIVITIES

We want you to embrace the real spirit of Spain, so we have prepared and organised all sorts of varied activities through which you will be able to taste and experience every part of Spanish culture. Be ready to be wowed, have all your senses ready to experience what Spain really feels like. You not only will be amazed at its beautiful scenery, diverse architecture and feast of flavours, but also you will be able to feel in the skin of a flamenco dancer.

We want you to hear, see, smell and taste Spain, and of course participate in this whole Spanish experience!
